{First Name},

As the final quarter of 2020 kicked off, ViewTech Borescopes VJ-3 video borescopes demand remained steady. The top-selling video borescope company earned business from many new clients, including an internationally recognized railroad company and a shipbuilding company. When searching to replace their fleet of aging borescopes, a North American railcar leasing company connected with ViewTech Borescopes at a previous FABTECH Expo. With each service and maintenance facility scattered across North America, through ViewTech Borescopes demo program, they were all able to experience the VJ-3 Dual Camera video borescope onsite.
